

Our SONY products are purchased by us on the official SONY web store, games have no expiration date and there is no risk of being blocked banned or (lock sing) issues. We will be responsible for the product until our online store and other social networks are functional.

Please read the terms and conditions in detail, below are the two types of A/B terms of use and their rules.

Any of the following is considered a customer: a legal entity, an organizational structure that uses and/or benefits from our services. By reading the rules, you agree to the terms and conditions of use. Also, you confirm that you are familiar with and agree to the changes and additions that may be made from time to time to the mentioned terms and conditions.

A) On a shared type account

On a shared type of account, where you will play from your account or from a given one. You buy the game as a service and not the account from which this particular game was purchased, therefore our store monitors/controls these accounts and takes care of their security, which is why Shared type accounts are owned only by us. The user cannot make any changes to the shared type account, be it: changing the EMAIL or password or anything else that directly affects its security. The user is obliged to use only the given instructions that will be issued by us, otherwise we will remove the responsibility for the operation of the game / service.

B) On full access account

In the case of a full ownership type account, you purchase the account with which this particular game was purchased, therefore, after receiving the account, you become the sole owner of this account, and the responsibility for its security is transferred to you. And with this action confirm the fact that only you have access to it from this moment.

A) On a shared type account

The price of the product is considered for one console only, and it is not allowed to share it with another console.

B) On full access account

You are free to choose who you share your account with, technically this is possible on four consoles including your own, and also depending on which consoles the game was released on, PS4 or PS5 or both consoles together.

3 . On a shared type account

If you need to move the account from one console to another, you must contact us, where there will be a video confirmation of the deletion of this account from the first console, and only then we will allow you to move this account to another console.

4 . If you are buying a shared type

The account, the network mode of the game can be disabled temporarily, due to reasons independent of us, such as, for example, the failure of the PlayStation Network servers, and if SONY requires the data to be re-entered into the account, it is necessary to contact us.

A) Primary

Primary account means that your gonna be playing purchased games, from your main profile all the progression and saves of the game, will be connected to your main username, switching to other user to start the game is not gonna be needed.

B) Secondary

Secondary account means that your gonna be playing purchased games , from given account by me that means all the saves and progression of the game will be connected to that particular username, also will need to switch to this given user to play your purchased game.

10 . Playstation plus

Playstation plus accounts are sold only under full ownership, you can use the benefits of Playstation plus from your own account as well as from this one, it is possible to share on four consoles including your console, two PS5 and two PS4

11 . In case of shared type account

The game/product cannot be sold to someone else, the account is owned by us, the customer can return the game to us and receive a voucher from our store worth a third of the current price of the product (this only applies to ps4, games purchased on ps5 are not returnable). (If the product is no longer on the site, the voucher is issued based on the price it was last sold on the site, this information is only available to us) the rule does not apply to sports games and ps plus), ps plus is not returned, we reserve the right to sprout games at a specific moment Decide how much of the voucher to redeem or not redeem at all.

The user must comply with the above rules, otherwise we will not be responsible for the operation of the game/service.
